CONYERS COMMENDS THE SENATE ON ITS EFFORTS TO PASS ENRON BILL

Congressman John Conyers, Jr. (D-MI), Ranking Member of the House Judiciary Committee, issued the following statement in response to the Senate Judiciary Committee's approval of S. 2010, the "Corporate and Criminal Fraud and Accountability Act."

"I applaud my colleagues on the Senate Judiciary Committee for their efforts to enact legislation that will impose tough criminal and civil penalties on corporate wrongdoers and protect employees and shareholders against future acts of corporate fraud and abuse.

I am equally hopeful that members in the House will take similar actions on a bill I recently introduced, HR 4098, which closely mirrors the provisions in the senate bill."
